Dive into a world of craft!

CraftExpo is an interactive craft event that will appeal to anyone wanting to explore their crafty side. Held on February 19 – 21, 2010 at the Newcastle Entertainment Centre, it's the perfect opportunity to dive into a world of craft with everything you need under one roof. CraftExpo promises inspiration with exclusive daily attractions and fun craft for you to try, perfect for a day out with the girls!

Lots to see and do

Develop new skills by attending daily workshops and watching interesting demonstrations. Take part in one of the numerous Make & Take workshops where you will be taught how to create your own unique piece to take home. Enter into a world of beautiful beading at the Bead Boudoir, a hands on jewellery making and beading area where you can make your own stunning jewellery. See the quick tricks, tips and the latest products at work as experienced craft retailers demonstrate throughout the day at the Discovery Desk. Craft experts are on hand at the lecture style seminars and workshops where you can listen, learn and pick up some great tips from these craft gurus.

Exhibitions

The best of the 2009 Design and Textile HSC major works will be on display, with the students on hand to talk you through their projects. There will be seminars to inspire students for their major works in 2010 and the exciting range of features and exhibitions will show you what you can achieve by discovering your crafty side.

One ticket for two shows!

Each ticket to CraftExpo includes entry to the Woodworking Hobbies Expo presented by the Woodturners of the Hunter Co-op. Perfect to inspire your hubby's hobby! See live woodworking demonstrations, learn to create a timber masterpiece and buy the latest quality machines, hand tools and handmade furniture.

Mark it in your diary!

If you are a beginner, want to try your hand at a new craft, have some unfinished projects at home, or just looking for a fun, interactive event, come to the CraftExpo February 19-21, 2010. It's the perfect place to learn about craft and seek tips and advice on all things crafty.
